In his early thirties, Pablo is a total loser. He lives the most perfect of love stories with Gudrun, but the only problem is that she is just a fantasy, one which plays out in a rather "hands-on" way. On the business side of things, it's not going too well either, his sex shop is going bankrupt, and he is forced to move back in with his parents. To try cheer him up, his father recreates his teenage bedroom. And to Pablo's surprise the room is like a trip back in time and brings back to life all his teenage fantasies. He has found what he wants to do: save the people who dream of finding such places and reconnect them with their most intimate dreams. He will make them. With his friend Emile...
