It's not easy to find a date when one is no longer exactly youthful and perhaps not the best catch. These days virtually all singles surf the net to find their soul mate. In the world of comics, though, internet encounters don't seem to exist. Are all comic book heroes supposed to be Casanovas? And the heroines, do they all fit the image of a femme fatale? Lynda Corazza broaches the subject of this social phenomenon with unbridled humour.
