The (young) life and (modest) work of Alexandre Pompidou, a mixed-media artist fresh out of art school and determined to make a name for himself as a sculptor, even though his parents would prefer to see him take over the family butcher shop. Alexandre plans to try to unite the two, and become the first Sculptor of Meat! His career plan: to get into the good graces of Adonias Solomon Aurochs-Lascaux, the best-known gallery owner in the city, the man who can make or break a career. Of course, one has to wonder if insulting his daughter and trying clumsily to seduce his wife is really the best way to go...One thing is for sure: there will be blood!
