The start of a new cycle in the Renaissance series!

Earth has just joined "The Complex," becoming the 24th member of the federation of planets founded thousands of years ago by the rulers of planets Thorgons, Köbalt, and Skuälls. Over the centuries, The Complex has experienced a number of conflicts, including the interstellar war that is the focus of the new cycle. In this first album, The Complex must defend itself against the growing Ouröbörös civilization, which will do anything to get its hands on The Complex's valuable resources.
