They're all over YouTube, they've been on TV and in the movies; now Baptiste Lorber and Gaël Mectoob, aka Bapt & Gaël, are branching out into comics. Will they survive (the comics, that is)? Who knows? Certainly, the new medium will give them a chance to be wildly creative—as if they weren't already. And they'll be able to come up with a whole new set of gags, just like the ones from their videos. And, of course, they'll be unable to resist a trip down memory lane with fun strips like "Baby Bapt & Gaël." Their YouTube channel has over a million followers. Now you'll be able to follow them offline, too.
