Morue, an unattractive and gawky teenager, is offered the chance to have a wish come true. She wishes for Beauty. But fairies are twisted - they grant Morue the gift of beauty in its purest form...the kind that sets off uncontrollable passions. Morue soon becomes queen of the realm, but she finds that she is unable to escape the consequences of the greed, lust, and desire she triggers through her irresponsibility with regard to perfect appearance - will this be her downfall?
