A superb coffee-table book uniting the comedy drawings of Charlie Poppins, a curious creature from the blogosphere. Naysayers, go on your way! In this collection of more than one hundred drawings, you will find elegant and timeless humour, where sarcasm is absent in favour of laughter, smiles, and wit, often touching on pop culture. Somewhere between Voutch in terms of tone and Fred's comedy illustrations, here is a new prince of humour in a deceptively vintage graphic spirit and with resolute pop references! Could it be the Sempé of Generation Y?
