The Clopinettes, invented by a pair of the comic world's indisputed geni, Marcel Gotlib and Nikita Mandryka, are brought together for the first time in one magnificent album. Born from the pages of the Pilote magazine, the Clopinettes are the absolute height of icy, sophisticated humor and eccentricity. This volume sees fables, charades, anecdotes, fairy tales and legends all reworked in the spirit of madness and surrealism. The album includes 16 unedited pages previously published in the weekly magazine, and also, most importantly, 16 brand new pages written by the authors especially to celebrate this planetary event! An absolute must-have.
