Discover a collection of notes and posts taken from the legendary blog of Mirion Malle: Commando Culotte!

Follow along with her as she dissects countless films and television shows through the lens of genre studies and feminism.

She takes on sexist clichés with her signature humor, using examples taken from the big screen and small screen to underline their omnipresence in contemporary media.

“Game of Thrones,” “Legally Blonde,” “Sixteen Candles”... What is the place of women in today’s blockbuster films and TV shows? What is the impact on our society? Mirion Malle responds to these questions with lightness and humor, teaching us a little along the way as she breaks down a number of sexist myths: “girls have no sense of humor,” “the friend-zone,” “makeup is stupid and for girls — guns are cool and for guys,” and more.

Including seven never-before-seen chapters!
