“We can be heroes, just for one day,” sang David Bowie...

This could be the credo of Abel and Emile, the two main characters of this comic. Their passion is cosplay: dressing up as a pop-culture character to participate in big events. That said, never tell a cosplayer that he or she is “dressing up”... you’ll get yourself in a bit of trouble! Cosplay and merely wearing a costume are two radically different things. Today is Comic-Kon, and Abel and Emile will finally be able to show off the costumes they’ve spent months working on! Abel is Batman and Emile a Jedi Knight. But when they get there, nothing goes as planned. A whistleblower being followed by armed men sneaks into the crowd and hides among the participants of the cosplay contest. The situation quickly escalates and turns into a full-blown hostage situation! It’s time for real heroes to stand up and be counted if anybody wants to get out alive. Our teens, with the help of a few new cosplayer friends, will quickly have to prove themselves worthy of the costumes they are wearing to save the world!
