It's been 20 years since Litteul Kevin, the brainchild of Coyote, first saw the light of day. In this richly illustrated album, Coyote affectionately evokes, with a great sense of humor, the close connection he has with his character.

This anniversary was the perfect opportunity for him to open up his archives and give us a glimpse at his work from the past 20 years, on Litteul Kevin, his parents and his friends, and not to mention the many motorbikes and pin-ups, each one more impressive than the last.

An absolute essential for fans of Coyote's artwork.
