The hired killer, Soldier Sun, and his daughter, Agripa, are tasked with eliminating all those who have crossed paths with a certain Jessica Blandy. But things have taken a turn for the worse in Salt Lake City, and Agripa's murderous impulses are not helping matters. After one murder too many - that of the owner of the motel where they were staying - they are now on the run in the desert. The feds have been on their heels since Salt Lake City, and the husband of the woman Agripa killed in the motel is out to avenge him. Armed and dangerous, Soldier Sun and Agripa decide to hide out at the ranch of their next target, just until their pursuers lose their trail. This spin-off of the 'Jessica Blandy' series puts the spotlight on the psychopathic killer Soldier Sun and his even more dangerous daughter. Reaping death and destruction wherever they go, they are after anyone and everyone who has had dealings with Jessica Blandy. But who's to say that their next victim, who welcomes them into her home, will not prove to be the most deadly of all...
