Florence Dupré La Tour has always lived surrounded by animals, be it in Buenos Aires, where she was born, in the Champagne region, in Guadeloupe or in Lyon (France). At the age of 16 she starts to question our true relationship with animals; is it a power relationship? Is it domination? Why are we capable of such cruelty towards them? Do we link them to our own image? Are we jealous of them? How far can a child go? What are the limits? In a sometimes disturbing autobiography, Florence Dupré La Tour tells us about all of the creatures of her childhood, and hides nothing of her most sinister meditations.

In this series

Cruelle

Ce n'est pas Bien.
Tu n'es pas Gentil.

Voilà, ici tu ne peux
plus partir.

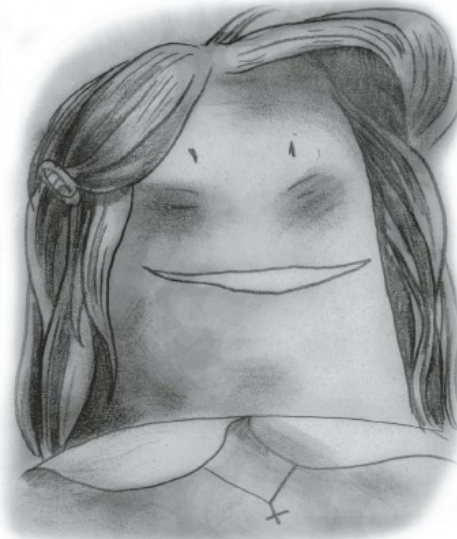

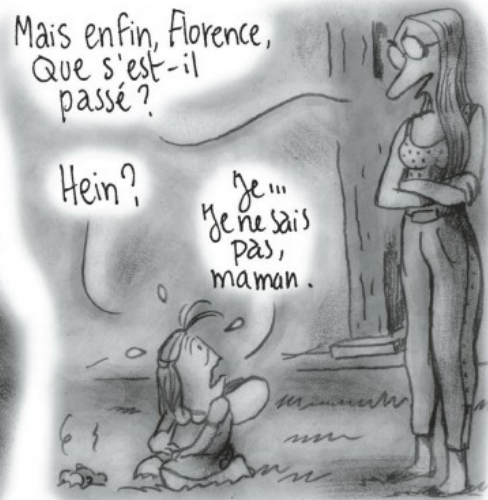

Mais tu dois faire
attention, si tu tombes,
tu vas te faire
mal.

Attention
...

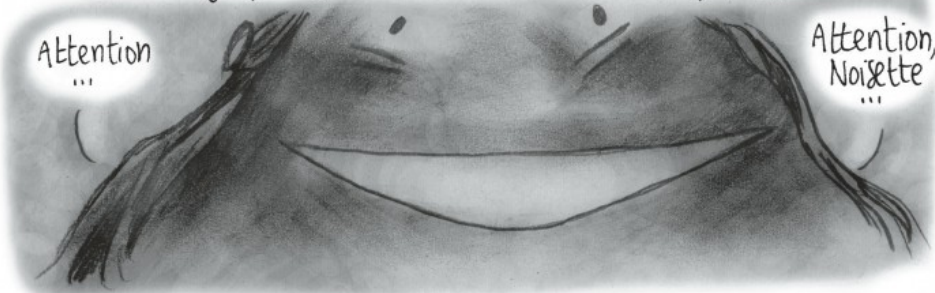

Attention,
Noisette
...

*Je suis troublée par ma bêtise.
Ne savais-je pas que sur son arbre, Noisette pourrait mourir?*

*Pourtant, je l'y ai mis.
Espérant une catastrophe.*

Maman, qui nous fait l'école à la maison, consacre nos après-midi aux arts plastiques.
