Lya is a beautiful young woman of 21. She had everything going for her... until she was paralyzed from the waist down the day before her 17th birthday, when she was struck by a hit-and-run driver. Ever since, Lya has been fighting to come to terms with her condition and rebuild her life. But what really drives her is her need to find whoever it was who left her for dead and obtain justice. Helping Lya in her quest is Antoine, her best friend—and maybe more—who'll do anything for her. But her desire for the truth will lead her down dangerous avenues, and her journey will be full of surprises.
