Sequins, bell-bottoms and platform shoes - the history of disco has arrived on the dancefloor!

At first, disco seemed to be on the fringes of a society that wasn't very open to exuberance, but it has since risen to the top of the international charts and got every country in the world grooving. Between vibrant comic strips and documentary pages packed with anecdotes and iconography, discover page after page, chapter after chapter, the names of those who brought this explosive, colourful and danceable movement to the ears and eyes of everyone!
