

Double Masque – Intégrales

By Deschler & Dufaux & Jamar

MAINSTREAM COMICS

Publisher : Dargaud Benelux

Genre : Historical fiction

Albums rights sold in :

PAGES
112

VOLUME
3

FORMAT
245 * 328

RELEASE
21/02/2014

Paris, 1802. Napoleon Bonaparte has just been proclaimed First Consul and Fouché, angry with this appointment, quits the Ministry of Police. François 'The Torpedo', an escaped prisoner from the penal colony where he was sent for various crimes, has just been caught red-handed for swindling. But to his great surprise, he's not dragged to a sordid dungeon but taken instead to the sumptuous office of Napoleon Bonaparte. The First Consul entrusts him with a delicate mission: find, as quickly as possible, the overnight bag which a prostitute called Opale had hidden from him in a moment of distraction. This bag contains a secret that cannot be revealed... In fact, the woman was hired to do this. Furious at having been stripped of his functions at the Ministry of Police, Fouché paid dearly for her to bring him this object of intrigue. Unfortunately for him and for his rival, Opale has disappeared without a trace. In the seedy part of town where she had plied her trade, neither the other prostitutes nor her regular customers know what has become of her. Her disappearance equally irritates her pimp, the imposing Amédée. Sensing an affair of State of the utmost importance, 'The Torpedo' has undertaken an investigation of his own.

Just two years into the 19th century, Napoleon has already been making a name for himself and dark plots have begun to emerge from the lowest and highest levels of France.

In this series

MEDIA TOON

FOREIGN RIGHTS

presents

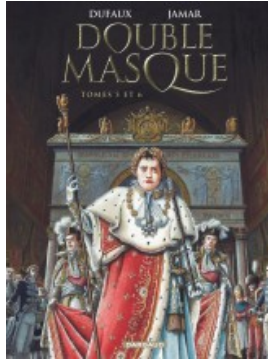

For further information, please write to:

Mediatoon Foreign rights,

57 rue Gaston Tessier

75019 Paris, FRANCE.

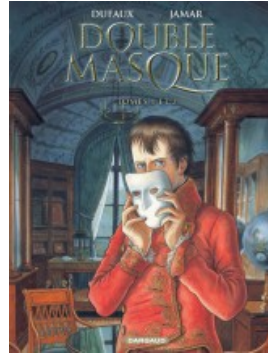

@ contact.mfr@mediatoon.com

Intégrale tomes 5 et 6

Intégrale tomes 3 et 4

Intégrale tomes 1 et 2
