With Midam, the creator of the famous Kid Paddle on script, and none other than Clarke, creator of the bewitching Mélusine on the artwork, you know you're in for a treat! These two young authors, pillars of SPIROU magazine, have decided to create a new series where anything goes. One pager, short stories, long histories, Clarke and Midam are ready, willing and able to drag you over the border of the absurd and the unreal. Put on your glasses, open those peepers of yours, and discover without further delay the funniest of funny stories, while the ongoing works still permit you...
