Still in search of the killers of his friend Duane, Jared has only a meager hint: the day of his death, Duane had an appointment at the Natural History Museum of London with someone called Patakarsky Ilya. And this man is important in this story. In 1966, during the Olympic fencing tournament in Atlanta, he intentionally wounded the current employer of Jared - the American billionaire Marlin Deckard - who, a few years later, sponsored an attack against Patakarsky ...
