All the beautiful stories have already been told. That leaves the rest.

Short stories saturated with black humor, in 2 volumes, by Krassinsky and an array of talented writers.

- Temptation: The Devil offers immortality and the gift of painting to an elderly woman. It's thoughtful of him, but at her age, immortality isn't exactly a gift. He should have come sooner...

- A Martian Among the Rednecks: "Hey, kid, those Texans sure stink, don't ya think?"

Warning: these stories are strictly forbidden to children under 36 months.
