In the Greece of ancient legends... Prince Golias leads a happy, peaceful life, training with his weapons-master and pursuing beautiful peasant girls. But when his father - the king - dies, Golias' world is turned upside-down. His uncle has been scheming behind the scenes to seize power for himself, and Golias is sent into exile - while his sister becomes a hostage of the usurper.

But everyone has underestimated the young prince, who turns out to have the spirit of a warrior! The very night after he is sent away, Golias infiltrates the royal palace, determined to save his sister and to reconquer his throne...
