Eva, a brilliant young psychiatrist, is reluctant to be analyzed by Dr. Llull, but she has no choice if she plans to get her license back. So she tells him everything— well, almost everything—but the way she sees it, in a game of cat and mouse with the doctor and his unorthodox methods. Little by little, we piece together Eva's story, of the week she spent trying to solve a mysterious murder case, and appreciate her ability to deal with lies and dangerous situations... as well as the suspicions of the police.
