It's not easy arriving at a new school! Especially when, like Julia, you're an orphan with strange supernatural powers, memories of times gone by and an entire mansion at your disposal! It's enough to annoy or seduce her new friends, including a team of girls who are as unfriendly as they are popular, the bubbly Caitlin and her asthma attacks, and the dark Mika, who is drowning a mysterious sorrow by working on ghost-detecting machines... Between mystery, the supernatural, friendship and the quest for self, all these teenagers will cross paths, fight, love and help each other: live!
