

La maison de pain d'épice – Journal d'un disque

By Cleet Boris

Huber Mounier, the former founding member of the well-known French rock group L'affaire Louis' Trio, also known under the pseudonym Cleet Boris, has been working solo since the beginning of this decade. He tells us about his new CD, The Gingerbread House, in this graphic Journal, in which he gives a very frank account of his life since the Affaire Louis' Trio split up. An introspective narration interspersed with humorous references to the graphic novel world he so adores, this sensitive work by Hubert Mounier, which is often funny and sometimes more profound, is illustrated with fluid and poetic artwork.
