Pellinor is a rather listless young man, but, since he stands to inherit the family fortune, his grandfather has charged him with their ancestral quest: to find and kill the Wandering Beast. Taking up the challenge, Pellinor meets Nimue, a young lady of the lake, and together they embark on adventures that will lead (unbeknown to them!) to the banishment of banality, the re-enchantment of the world, and, most importantly, the discovery of their own place in it—which far outweighs the expectations that have been placed upon them.
