This story takes us deep into a dreamworld—a world of fear and consolation — in which our young hero attempts to say goodbye to his grandfather. But the passing of a loved one is merely the background to a story that is in fact a celebration of life, inspired by Mozart's uplifting Haffner Symphony.

Far from dwelling on these difficult life moments, the story reminds us of the lightness of the moments of the joyful times spent together, showing us that we can always draw the positive from a situation.

Second opus of the collection Do Ré Mi Chat, inspired by Mozart's Symphony N° 35.
