By revisiting the myth of the bogeyman in his own style, Denis-Pierre Filippi creates a two-volume fantasy tale of great humanity. After Un drôle d'ange gardien (with Sandrine Revel) and Le livre de Jack (with O. G. Boiscommun), he once again presents children caught up in a series of events that overtake them. Fabrice Lebeault, already known and recognised for his series "Horologiom", gives the full measure of his talent and transforms this poignant story through his elegant and sensitive drawing skills.
