Le génie de Beyrouth

By Merhej & Sélim Nassib

Publisher: Dargaud Genre: Historical fiction

07/02/2025

It is said that the spirit of Beirut is embodied in a genie that cannot be destroyed unless the city itself is destroyed... but this has yet to be proved.

In the 1970s, Beirut is a kaleidoscope of contrasting communities, their members living in relative harmony. But the advent of war threatens to disrupt this fragile balance.

"The Genie of Beirut" is a fictionalized three-volume account of the gradual destruction of the city, its sensitive portrayal of the catastrophe owing to the gentle and understated gravity of journalist Sélim Nassib's text and the delicate luminosity of Léna Merhej's illustrations.

... tranquille...

... parallèle à l'avenue qui longeait la mer un peu plus bas et qu'on appelait l'avenue des Français...

Leur apparition quotidienne était évidemment source de fantasmes pour tous les adolescents de la rue...

... Et source de scènes de ménage dans les familles.

Elles rentraient tard dans la nuit, ou même au petit matin, complètement saoules, accompagnées ou pas, et faisaient régulièrement scandale.
