Tristan, metis, and Mark Antony, the heir to the plantation Pérolles, grew up like brothers. But under the Caribbean sun, the law of blood is the strongest. And no oath, love or friendship, can resist the "black blood" running in Tristan's veins... This "black blood", a distant heir of suffering, prevents Tristan to love Madeleine, Mark Antony's sister, and pushes him into the world of piracy and freedom. The first series of IRS authors: a great epic story full of rage and romance.
