Leonardo is a genius.
At least that's what he thinks!
A hilarious caricature of the famous Leonardo da Vinci, a man best known for his portraits of ladies with enigmatic smiles...! But he spends most of his life inventing the most incongruous machines which he then tests on his poor Disciple - a young man who dreams only of a peaceful life, but always ends up covered with cuts and bruises...

The series has been turned into an animated series, more information here.
