Yuan is a Chinese truck driver who brings coal to illegal open-pit mines. He then travels far and wide to deliver his coal, hoping each time to get a better price. Yuan works with Wei, his "fixer," who haggles with potential buyers. But one day Wei decides to kill Yuan in an attempt to steal his truck. Yuan miraculously survives, and now has only goal: to get his truck back. Without it, he has no job and no money, only shame in his wife's and daughter's eyes. "Les Âmes Noires" (Dark Souls) is a social thriller with an atmosphere reminiscent of the documentaries of filmmaker Wang Bing .
