“Ma Vie de réac” brings up all the issues of modern society from a unique perspective. This is the point of view of the main character, who is a sort of reactionary-but-not-really, both bourgeois, and anti-bourgeois, cool but not cool, naive, bewildered, anti-modern, hyper-modern... In short, he is a contemporary man entangled in contradictions, who symbolizes, as an individual, the current conflict between conservatives and liberals liberals.
