Maroussia lives in a small village with her grandmother. The village stands between the infinite plains and a dense forest. Like many generations before them, they live in peace and harmony with the forest spirits: Jarylo, the beautiful forest god adorned with flowers; the Leshy, the giant protector of the woods; and even Bouka, the small creature that lurks under your bed when you go to sleep.

Unfortunately, the days of legends and magic slowly fade as the dawn of men arises. An emissary of the Tsar has come to Maroussia's village to claim the woods, wipe it clean, and build a railroad line...
