Following a car accident with her parents, 11-year-old Melody is rushed to hospital. As the little girl hovers between life and death, the spirit of a mysterious young woman called Shanala promises to save her... on the condition that Melody carries out certain tasks. Mission number one: find the person responsible for the accident that nearly cost her life. To fulfil her quest, Melody is endowed with the power to transform into an adult for a few hours a day.
