In June 1981, during a spectacular air raid, the Israeli Armed Forces (IAF) destroyed the only nuclear power plant in the Arab world, located just a few miles away from the city of Baghdad. The mission of these eight Israeli F-16 fighter bombers was to stop Saddam Hussein from getting his hands on the nuclear weapon he was threatening to use to permanently wipe Israel off the map... Behind the scenes of this major geopolitical crisis, there were numerous underhand tricks by different secret service agencies and emergency meetings everywhere. All the while, a team of exceptional fighter pilots were secretly planning this air raid which will remain in history books on modern military aviation a model for preventive attack. This is a sensational docu-fiction based on one of the greatest air and espionage operations of the last thirty years!
