Monsieur Jean develops and matures from one cartoon book to the next. From a young thirty-year-old bachelor, he has become a father, after meeting Cathy, and he is now ready to settle into family life. Through the various hurdles of the life of Monsieur Jean, Dupuy and Berberian take an amusing look at our daily lives and make us think of our own questions with humour and tenderness. Starting with Humanoïdes Associés (5 volumes published), this captivating series has been continued by Editions Dupuis for our greater pleasure.
