Naja is Number Three. She works for Zero. Zero identifies the target, and Naja carries out the execution. It's as simple as that.

Naja is a professional killer because she cannot feel pain. But she hopes that someday she will find it: that will be the day when she will no longer have to "suffer because she cannot suffer."

Things might have gone on this way indefinitely. But, somehow, a stranger has managed to infiltrate Naja's home. To kill her? No. To make her suffer? That would have been a stroke of luck. But, no. This stranger is here to tell Naja something: Number One wants her dead.

If she wants to survive, Naja will have to confront the shades of her past...
