After the successful comic book adaptation of his novel “Black Water Lilies” published by Dupuis/Aire Libre, Michel Bussi returns, along with Fred Duval and Didier Cassegrain, for “Don’t Let Go”, a breathtaking thriller set in the heart of Reunion Island.

A lovely couple in the turquoise waters of Reunion Island. But the dream turns into a nightmare when Liane disappears from the hotel and her husband, Martial, becomes the ideal culprit. Distraught, not knowing how to prove his innocence, Martial flees with their six-year-old daughter. For the police, this looks like a confession: the chase, in the heart of the island’s luxuriant nature, is on.

But what if this manhunt, punctuated by dead bodies, hides the most fearsome of deceptions?
