The Night School is one of a kind. As the name would indicate, it only opens its doors after the sun goes down. The reason is simple: the pupils are vampires, werewolves and witches who have come to learn the basics of magic and how to hunt down the creatures known as Rippers. Alex, a young witch, doesn't actually attend the school. She prefers getting private lessons from her sister, Sarah. But she's always hanging around the grounds of the Night School, and so who knows what kind of people she's going to meet...?
