Meet Perceval, our hero in this coming-of-age tale. A young, spontaneous wildling completely devoid of manners, but his natural good-looks and pure heart have won him the right to the throne of Graal - the famous Graal that everyone is looking for, and nobody can find. However, it's not long before Perceval's innate goodness is in conflict with the sin of his conception. Born of incest, Perceval's mother is hiding his true identity from him. When he finally meets his true father, the king of Graal, he'll have to face up to the truth of his origins.
