Derived

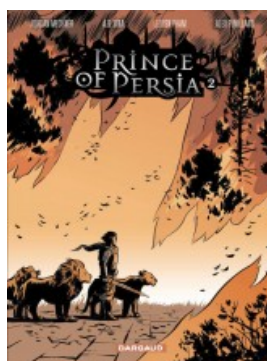

from the popular video game, this comic book adaptation of "Prince of Persia" was written by the game developer himself, Jordan Mechner, in collaboration with A.B. Sina, Iranian writer. The old legend is set against a backdrop of a Persian town with beautiful gardens, surrounded by mountains. The legitimate princes and princesses of two different eras are engaged in a bitter struggle against the viziers and the military who are trying to dominate the town. The famous prince seeks to truly understand the situation, ultimately becoming the hero that we know him as.
