This is the story of the Pilote journal during a key period in history (1968 - 1972), narrated by the main players who lived through that era, Marcel Gotlib, Fred, Claire Bretécher, Philippe Druillet and Nikita Mandryka, as well as a post-humous interview with Jean Giraud. Every one of these (sometimes contradictory) interviews make this work a highly instructive, exciting and lively account. These 5 buzzing years were the 5 years that would transform the world of European comic books forever.
