ZHUANG Qian-qian is a student. Nothing sets her apart from her friends and classmates... until the day she meets LI Muzi, a stranger only barely younger than herself, who claims to be her son. Very quickly Qian-qian must accept the unbelievable: Li Muzi truly is her son... who has not yet been born. A son who she will bear years in the future. A son traumatized in early childhood by his mother's premature death. Traumatized to the point of developing an obsession: to see his mother again, one last time. He has 30 days ahead of him to get to know his mother all over again. Not as a child this time, but as a young man, only 3 years younger than his mother...
