Three witches — Fébris, Brygia and Sortilega — accidentally receive a fairy baby, Hazel, who will turn their lives upside-down. All the more so when their cousin Panacea turns up unexpectedly with her oafish husband Rex and their daughter Hecate. Rex doesn't understand how the three can live without television, and decides to introduce the hapless witches to the small screen, whether they like it or not!

A masterly cocktail of humor, irony and tenderness, this series mocks the modern world and its oddities. On the way, it skewers the excesses of the media and the reign of consumerism.

And, above all, it's also the first series by Juanjo Guarnido since Blacksad!
