Co-published with Arte, this collective album brings together some of the finest cartoonists who are asked to look back at the best of the 80s... What do the 80s represent to us now, more than twenty years after? This is what this extraordinary group of authors will be exploring with a dozen stories dedicated to music. There is some politics talk thrown in there too, with a perspective at life behind the Iron Curtain, as well as in Britain and the United States with the birth of 'television culture' and more. This volume will complement the summer programmes on the Arte channel, which will include, amongst others, the following shows: Emile Bravo, Chauvel & Alfred, Serge Clerc, Dabitch & Cattelain, Nine Antico, Drouin & Clavery, Abel & Wimberly, and more.
