“Now the earth was corrupt in God’s sight and was full of violence.” (Genesis 6:11). After Adam and Eve’s expulsion from the Garden of Eden, the two mortals discovered the Creation: a haven of peace where animal and vegetable co-existed in perfect harmony. But Abel’s death at the hands of his brother Cain led to the fall of the terrestrial Paradise. Cain, doomed by God to witness the degradation of Humankind until the end of time, walks the devastated Earth, which has become a shelter for prehistoric monsters and bloodthirsty marauders. In this hellish place, bound to destruction by the Great Flood, Cain crosses paths with Noah.
