Timo lives with his parents in an isolated forest village. His imagination is fed by the books he finds at home. But when he runs out, his thirst for adventure drives him to run away from home to explore the world beyond the forest. His first mission is to save Broof, a panda dog imprisoned by a band of strange, masked creatures. Timo succeeds, and Broof becomes his traveling companion. But Timo senses that his new friend is hiding something... What if he made a mistake, upsetting the balance of this unknown outside world?
