1922, Sir George Herbert, Count of Carnarvon, has had enough. As substantial as his fortune may be, he is about to cut back on expenses after six years of financing unsuccessful excavations in the hopes of finding a forgotten pharaoh: Tutankhamun. But Howard Carter, the archeologist entrusted with this mission, manages to convince Sir George to give him one last chance: a season of digging in the Valley of the Kings, which has already been thoroughly explored and pillaged since Antiquity! A docu-comic jam-packed with history and adventure, drawing on the expertise of Egyptologist Amandine Marshall.
