Eva lives in a modern day Stockholm and she has everything a woman could want. She has a husband she loves, a wonderful son, and a house on the edge of the forest for which they have almost finished paying the mortgage. But Henrik is acting strangely these days. He's become distant and taciturn, and Eva is starting worry. She investigates, even spies on him, and eventually discovers an affair that has been going on for several months. Her world falls apart...but she has a plan - a cruel trap that will hurt him just as he has hurt her. Just at the opportune moment, she meets Jonas. A meaningless encounter, she thinks. But this lonely, disturbed young man is not about to let her get away. Without even knowing it, Eva gets caught in his web, and now Jonas is just waiting for the right moment... "Trahie" is the comic adaptation of Karin Alvtegen's psychological thriller in the new generation Scandinavian style (Larsson, Nesbo, etc.).
