Young Turo has spent his peaceful childhood in a secluded village. Blessed with extraordinary strength, he spends his time hunting the giant wild boars that allow his whole community to eat. One day, he crosses the path of a band of tomb raiders whom he saves from certain death. He decides to go along with them, to explore the wide world. Turo will be plunged into an ancient battle... and will discover that he's always been destined to play a critical role in that fight.
