A fantasy and political thriller set in three volumes. Marion and Jason (aka Jaz) are tracking an organization gathering a hundred initiates, who are among the most powerful people on the planet. Their aim? To provide happiness for humanity. In order to achieve this, any and all means are used, including the help of... Angels! Opposite them however, another organization exists to defend freedom. Also by all means available. So, what is the line between Good and Evil? You are left to decide.
